50

A graphical user interface window, labeled 50, with a standard Windows-style title bar containing minimize, maximize, and close buttons. The window contains the text "Enter user name and password" at the top. Below this text are two vertically stacked input fields. The first field is preceded by the label "User name(U)" and the second by "Password(P)". To the right of each input field is a button: "OK" for the first field and "Cancel" for the second field.
